My name is Ryan Miller, and I am a financial advisor with GuideStone®. I understand that everyone's story is different, and as a result, a personalized strategy taking these unique factors into consideration is necessary.

It is my desire to listen to your story and come alongside you by providing comprehensive advice in the form of optimal investment allocations and a plan tailored to meet your needs and financial goals.

I hold a Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy, politics and economics from the University of Pennsylvania with a joint minor in consumer psychology through the Wharton School of Business. Prior to coming to GuideStone, I was a human capital consultant at a large global professional services firm and a financial planning consultant at a multinational financial services institution.

Originally from Pennsylvania, and having spent time living in Philadelphia, London and New York City, I am now happy to call Dallas home. I have enjoyed getting to experience all of the wonderful food, people and values that make this the great state of Texas. In addition to traveling abroad, biking, cooking, and attending concerts, I also enjoy being actively involved at my church and volunteering at various places in the DFW Metroplex.

At GuideStone, our goal is to provide a biblical perspective to money management and enable you to honor the Lord with your assets in the same way you honor the Lord with your work. So regardless of what level of resources the Lord has entrusted to you, let me help you steward it wisely. It is my pleasure to serve those who have spent their lives serving the Kingdom – how can I serve you?

Please reach out to me at the contact information listed above. I look forward to working with you soon!
