

Learn to do what is good. Pursue justice. Correct the oppressor. Defend the rights of the fatherless. Plead the widow's cause. Isaiah 1:17 (CSB)

Dear Friend,

Thank you for faithfully "pleading the widow's cause" by giving to Mission:Dignity®, helping widows who find themselves in desperate need of financial assistance!

Freddie Means is one of the widows you support through your generous gifts. Freddie and her late husband, James, served the Lord together for 65 years. She served as a pre-kindergarten teacher and then director of the daycare at First Baptist Church in Denton, Texas, for 32 years. For the past 18 years, she has been active in her Sunday school class at Highland Baptist Church in Denton, Texas.

After his passing in 2021, she could not make it on her own financially and was at risk of losing her home. She tried for six months to find a way to stay in her home but to no avail.

When Freddie received a letter from Mission:Dignity asking if she needed financial assistance, she called out of desperation. She was so happy when she discovered that Mission:Dignity could provide enough financial support for her to stay in her home. Her prayers were answered, and your gifts helped another widow in need. Thank you once again for your generosity!

Many blessings,
